

What's Happening at Pearson Road

January 27-February 7, 2025

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Hello Pearson Community,

January went by so fast! We are still waiting for snow so our students can enjoy sledding and building snow forts!

Students will explore safe and fun play through Physical Literacy lessons this week. They will also learn about resilience through drumming at our cultural assembly.

Parent-teacher conferences are coming up in the first week of February. You have probably heard from your child's teacher. We are looking forward to meeting you! Our Multicultural Feast Day is approaching as well. I will send the details next week.

Warm Regards,
Mrs. Virk

From the Desk of Our Inclusion Teachers

Three people are filling the role of inclusion teacher, which is new to our district this year: Ms. Church, Ms. Bennett and Ms. DeVos. It blends the roles of social-emotional learning (SEL) teacher (Ms. Church's former position) and resource teacher (working with students who have designations).

A typical day would find us teaching several lessons like problem-solving, identifying emotions and self-regulation to individuals, small groups and whole classes. We also support our designated students with an individualized education program goals and help them and their CEAs.

MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR CHILD'S EDUCATION & OVERALL SCHOOL EXPERIENCE.

What's Happening at Pearson Road

Partners for inclusive Education (PIE) is a welcoming online space committed to supporting parents/guardians to learn more about the how students with neurodiversity, disability, support needs and/or diverse abilities are supported in their neighborhood school.

PIE is a space where parents/guardians, staff and community come together as partners to champion inclusive education by learning and supporting each other as we navigate the school years together. We connect virtually offering workshops, speakers, and opportunities to connect with other parents/guardians.

The purpose of Partners for Inclusive Education can be found on the School District website under Parent Resources
